

Aexus HR Privacy Statement GDPR 2020

AEXUS PRIVACY STATEMENT

Privacy statement:

Aexus is responsible for the correct use and protection of data within the meaning of the General Data Protection Regulation. Aexus only collects data provided by you. We use these data to process your application. By leaving data on our website, you agree to this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, it is not possible to apply with Aexus through this channel.

Processing of personal data:

To ensure that applications run smoothly, we request a number of personal data. This includes data such as name, contact details, CV and the like. We will, of course, treat this information with care and will only use it for the following purposes:

- Processing and handling of the application;
- Inclusion of an application in our portfolio (we will ask for explicit permission for this and only then will we keep it);
- To create anonymised data of our recruitment process for evaluation and improvement.

Data provided on behalf of partnerintroduction:

As part of Aexus's services, Aexus records and uses the contact details and other information provided by you as part of the "open applications" registration process to provide you with the information requested. Aexus processes your given personal data in order to fulfil your request, including to inform partners and/or third parties carefully selected.

Aexus reserved the right to remove your data from our database whose content is illegal or otherwise objectionable.

Retention of data:

Aexus only stores and uses the data for the purpose for which they are intended. Within the scope of the GDPR, we will not keep these data for longer than strictly necessary. In the case of an application, this is a maximum of one (1) month, after which the data will be deleted. Safety measures to prevent loss, unlawful use and/or modifications have been implemented by Aexus.

If you have given consent to keep the data in our portfolio for a longer period of time, such a period will not exceed one (1) year. It is possible to have your data removed from our portfolio in between, in which case you must send us a request at: koen@aexus-europe.com. We will then ensure that the data are deleted within one (1) month.
