

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Privacy statement:

Aexus is responsible for the proper use and protection of the personal information submitted to us in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation. Aexus only collects the data you provide to us. We use this data to process your application. By leaving your data on our website, you agree to this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with it, it will not be possible to apply for a job with Aexus in this way.

Processing of personal data:

In order to process your job application correctly, we ask you to provide a range of personal data. This includes information such as name, contact details, CV and so on. Of course, we handle this data carefully and use it only for the following:

- Processing and handling of the application;
- Including the application in our portfolio (we request explicit permission for this and only after that we will store it);
- To compile anonymized data from our recruitment process for evaluation and improvement.

Retention of information:

Aexus stores and uses your data only for as long as needed to meet the purposes for which it was collected, or to comply with the required local, federal, and international laws that apply to our business. We will retain and use the information provided for as long as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and where applicable, the appropriate statute of limitations period which varies from country to country. In the context of AVG, we will not keep your data longer than strictly needed. Aexus has security measures in place to prevent loss, unlawful use and/or alteration.

In the event, you wish to withdraw your application and have your data removed from our database you can make a request for removal to us via: alena@aexus-europe.com. We will then ensure that the data is removed within 1 month.
